

Common Tablets with Uses and Side Effects

Tablet Name	Use	Common Side Effects
Paracetamol	Used to relieve pain and reduce fever.	Nausea, rash, liver damage (overdose)
Ibuprofen	Reduces inflammation, pain, and fever.	Stomach upset, ulcers, dizziness
Amoxicillin	Treats bacterial infections.	Diarrhea, rash, allergic reactions
Cetirizine	Relieves allergy symptoms.	Drowsiness, dry mouth, fatigue
Metformin	Lowers blood sugar in type 2 diabetes.	Nausea, diarrhea, vitamin B12 deficiency
Atorvastatin	Lowers cholesterol.	Muscle pain, liver enzyme elevation
Amlodipine	Lowers high blood pressure.	Swelling, dizziness, flushing
Omeprazole	Treats acid reflux and ulcers.	Headache, abdominal pain, diarrhea
Salbutamol	Relieves asthma symptoms.	Tremor, palpitations, nervousness
Losartan	Treats high blood pressure.	Dizziness, fatigue, nasal congestion
Levothyroxine	Treats hypothyroidism.	Anxiety, weight loss, palpitations (if overdosed)
Azithromycin	Treats bacterial infections.	Stomach upset, diarrhea, rash
Pantoprazole	Reduces stomach acid.	Flatulence, nausea, joint pain
Clopidogrel	Prevents blood clots.	Bleeding, bruising, rash
Hydrochlorothiazide	Treats hypertension.	Increased urination, low potassium, dehydration
Ranitidine	Reduces stomach acid.	Constipation, diarrhea, headache
Doxycycline	Treats bacterial infections.	Sun sensitivity, nausea, vomiting
Domperidone	Relieves nausea and vomiting.	Dry mouth, abdominal cramps, dizziness
Tramadol	Relieves moderate to severe pain.	Drowsiness, constipation, dependence
Lorazepam	Used for anxiety and sleep.	Drowsiness, confusion, dependence